WHY DID RICKY DIE?

FATAL WOUND: Ricky Hayden died after confronting men who were attempting to steal a moped

● Urgent appeal from mum after man dies from stab wound to thigh

By Rudi Abdallah

redbridge@yellowad.co.uk

THE MOTHER of a man who died from stab wounds has appealed for any witnesses to come forward and contact police.

Ricky Hayden, 27, of Gibbfield Close, Chadwell Heath, died in an east London hospital last Wednesday.

A post-mortem examination on Thursday, September 15, at Queen's Hospital Mortuary gave the cause of death as a stab wound to the thigh.

Suzan Hedges, Ricky's mother, said: "I would like to thank the community for all the help and support they have provided so far.

"If anyone knows anything then please contact the police."

The Hayden family were woken

by a noise outside their house at 1.25am on Tuesday, September 13.

Police said that Ricky and his father Paul, 46, rushed outside and saw a group of up to four men attempting to steal a moped.

Both suffered knife wounds.

They were taken to a hospital, where Ricky was pronounced dead in the early hours of the following morning.

Paul was later released from hospital.

Detective Chief Inspector Andrew Packer, of the Homicide and Major Crime Command, who is leading the investigation, said: "Gibbfield Close is a residential street, and while there would not have been many people out and about at the time of this alleged attack, it was a warm night and people would have had their windows open.

"I am appealing to anyone who heard, or saw anything suspicious to come forward and speak to police."

Detectives are also appealing for the public's help to trace a moped that was used by the suspects.

The moped is described as silver or grey, with a large dark coloured box on the rear. It is believed that the suspects arrived and left the scene on this moped.

Mr Packer said: "I am asking the public for their help to find this moped – it is crucial to the investigation.

"It is possible that it has been abandoned or hidden in a garage by the suspects.

"I would ask anyone who has an outbuilding or a lock-up they don't frequently use to have a quick check. There are also a number of open spaces and footpaths within the Marks Gate area, so I urge people with local knowledge of the vicinity to keep an eye out for this moped."

Witnesses or anyone with information that could assist the investigation is asked to call the incident room on 020 8345 3865. To remain anonymous, call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, or visit crimestoppers-uk.org.

● Two teenagers, aged 19 and 16, were arrested on Wednesday, September 14, on suspicion of murder.

They were both later bailed pending further enquiries.

A third man was arrested on Tuesday this week.

At time of going to press, the 19-year-old was in custody at an east London police station.

Keep warm on and off the football pitch this winter

NOTHING puts a downer on a good time outdoors like cold feet and numb fingers, so Heat Holders are the perfect option for keeping snug during activities that leave you exposed to the elements, whether at work, rest or play – making them ideal for the new football season.

Heat Holders are market leaders in thermal clothing, and are experts at producing pieces that not only retain warmth, but look great.

Its incredible socks are the warmest in the world as far has ever been tested, with an amazing 2.34 Tog rating, and the gloves, hat and neck-warmer encompass the three part, unique Heat Holders technology as well, making them the perfect additions to your match day outfit.

Choose from a cool ribbed, classic turnover of fashion-forward Fair Isle styles for men or a stylish cable knit design for women, all available in co-ordinating colours.

No matter if you are looking to stay comfortable in the stands or relax and enjoy the game from the sofa, show your support in a pair of Heat Holders Football Design Socks in your team colours.

Keep your delicate neck and ears protected during the chilly autumnal air in the stands with a Heat Holders Hat and Neckwarmer, and avoid having to ward off numb fingers with a half-time pie with the help of Heat Holders Gloves.

Trust Heat Holders to make sure that you are not left out in the cold this season, no matter how your team performs.

Find out more by visiting heathholders.co.uk. For your chance to win one of four Heat Holders prize packages, each containing football design socks, hat, gloves and a neckwarmer, just answer

Robber gets 20 years for OAP chisel attack

A ROBBER from Dagenham has been sentenced to 20 years in prison after he stabbed an 86-year-old woman with a chisel.

Thomas Lee, 41, of The Chase, Dagenham, was jailed at Snaresbrook Crown Court on September 12.

Lee had already pleaded guilty to robbery. He had been found guilty of aggravated burglary and handling stolen goods at an earlier hearing in August.

The court heard how the victim answered the door on September 11, 2015, to find Lee in a high-visibility jacket posing as a Water Board representative.

When she refused to let him enter, Lee forced his way in, assaulted her and threw her to the floor.

He stabbed the victim with a chisel after she refused to hand over money or to stop calling.

Lee fled the scene with nothing but left the chisel behind. DNA tests led police to Lee, who was on the database for previous convictions.

Detective Constable Jonathan Alexander, the officer in the case, said: "Lee is a very dangerous individual, his disgusting attack on an 86-year-old woman had a huge impact not only on the victim, but on the local community in Barking and Dagenham." The length of his sentence reflects the evil act that he carried out on the afternoon of the 11th September 2015. His criminal past shows that he is quite clearly a danger to our community, especially the vulnerable and elderly, and as a result of this lengthy sentence, the community can feel safer today." The judge imposing an additional five year extended sentence due to the severity of the crimes.

Daredevil students raise £1,200 for hospice

SQUAD: Keyala Fenn, Karen Boxall, Rheanna Stiles and Albi Damo conquered the Orbit sculpture, raising over £1,200 for a hospice.

STUDENTS from Barking and Dagenham College raised over £1,200 for a hospice when they abseiled 262 feet down the Arcelor Mittal Orbit sculpture on Saturday.

Karen Boxall, learning co-ordinator at the College, Keyala Fenn, Albi Damo and Rheanna Stiles abseiled down the tower in aid of Richard House Children's Hospice.

Ms Boxall, who organised the event, said: "I visited Richard House to see their amazing work and made a conscious decision to get involved. This is our first fundraising challenge of the new term, and there will be plenty more opportunities for students and staff in the months ahead.

"The view from the top of the Orbit was fantastic. It was an exhilarating experience, and I thoroughly recommend it."

Ms Fenn, who has previously abseiled, said: "When you get to the top it's scary and the worst bit was seeing the others start to get nervous."

Thousands turn out for street party parade gig

MORE than a thousand people attended a parade on Sunday celebrating young people in Barking and Dagenham.

The Youth Parade, a free family day, saw dance groups, sports clubs and a mix of other organisations entertain the crowd who walked from Barking Park to Abbey Green.

Darren Rodwell, leader of the council, said: "Once again the Youth Parade was a massive success and it was great to see so many young people turn out in their numbers to showcase what they do." The Youth Parade is a perfect opportunity for us to celebrate the positive impact that young people have on our borough and I would like to say a massive thank you to all of them for taking part, you made me feel immensely proud."

Splendiferous tales!

YEAR 9 pupils gathered to celebrate the centenary of Roald Dahl's birth.

Marshalls Park School and Performing Arts College, Pettits Lane, Romford, created an exhibition on Wednesday last week in the library commemorating the much loved children's author, who was born on September 13, 1916, in Llandaff, Cardiff.

Schools marked the occasion with special events throughout the week.

Dahl's works include Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Danny, the Champion of the World and Fantastic Mr. Fox.

A school spokesman said: "To celebrate the 100th birthday of Roald Dahl we made his life the focus for our year 9 assembly.

"The assembly was led by our librarian Mrs Wilson, who was assisted by two year 9 students, Tia Hunte and Isabella George.

"The assembly was arranged to inspire our students: despite the adversities that Roald Dahl encountered throughout his life, he became a world renowned author of both children's and adult's literature – illustrating what determination and resolve can achieve."

THE FUTURE'S ORANGE: Imogen Heap and the OrangeLine team

St Francis launches community helpline

AN AWARD-winning singer helped launch a new service for St Francis Hospice's fight against loneliness and isolation last Thursday, September 15.

Imogen Heap, who has won two Grammy awards and an Ivor Novello, cut the ribbon at Saint Francis Hospice's opening of 'OrangeLine', a free telephone service that provides advice and support for people with a life-limiting illness, their loved ones and the recently bereaved.

Imogen also played songs on a grand piano 'brought in especially for the occasion'. She became a patron of the hospice earlier this year.

Jan Scott, service development manager, said: "Since the service began taking calls at the start of September, our hospice teams have been referring people to OrangeLine."

"Our challenge now is to get the message out to GPs, healthcare professionals and the local community that OrangeLine is here to help them, too."

OrangeLine runs from Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm, with an answerphone service operating at other times. Members of the team are available for a long, friendly chat, and can offer callers information and signposting to other local services.

Still waters run deep

Game of Thrones star opens 3-week Estuary Festival

SPEECH: Actor Stephen Dillane opens the festival

GAME OF Thrones actor Stephen Dillane opened the Estuary Festival on Saturday – a three-week celebration of the Thames through literature, art, music, film and performance.

Mr Dillane appeared at the Tilbury Cruise Terminal to read the first pages of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, opening a series of events across Essex which run until October 2.

Hundreds of artists and performers are taking part.

The Points of Departure exhibition will run until September 30 at the Tilbury Cruise Terminal, and along the Quay in Gravesend, Kent.

It features works by 28 contemporary artists exploring the estuary's landscape, history and culture.

The exhibition includes Ghost by Adam Chodzko (a vision of the recently deceased being ferried to the island of the dead), and Lavinia Greenlaw's film The Sea is an Edge and an Ending, which examines memory and loss in a moving piece about her father's death from Alzheimer's.

The Fort Film Night at Coalhouse Fort on Sunday September 25 opens with the premiere of Creature of the Estuary, while Eelyn Lee's Five Scenes of Fear – filmed along the Thames – includes collaborations from students from Sevic College and various Essex schools.

Meanwhile, a pop-up museum celebrating the Thames Estuary is located in Cliffs Gardens, Western Esplanade, Southend, from September 17 to October 2.

The museum presents a new collection of shipwreck finds, shown with a drawing by Adam Dant that reveals shipwreck secrets still hidden beneath the waters.

It will be held in a modified ship container situated in the planned site for the permanent Museum of the Thames Estuary, within the cliffs on Southend seafront.

The festival ends with Sound of the Thames Delta on October 1-2 at the Royal Pavilion on Southend Pier. This features musicians, artists, writers and film-makers looking back over 40 years of Essex's innovative music scene, which includes Dr Feelgood and Depeche Mode.

• www.estuaryfestival.com

Some of our most popular destinations...

The Glorious British Isles

Some of the most enduringly popular itineraries offered by the fleet are the circumnavigations of our 'sceptred isle', with just a dash of additional colour across the Channel or Irish Sea to complete the enjoyment of cruises that explore some of our most beautiful, remoter corners... proving once again that "there's no place like home".

Land of the Northern Lights

The extraordinary Aurora Borealis, the celestial phenomenon that has bewitched, enchanted and entranced generations, is truly one of Earth's most awe-inspiring sights, which has to be experienced to be believed. Join one of a selection of cruises north along Norway's fjord-and-island-dotted coastline, in search of the mysterious spectacle.

Baltic Cities & St Petersburg

Combining relaxed cruising in the crystal clear light for which the waters of the Baltic Sea are famous with some truly memorable ports of call, and with long days to enhance the pleasure of it all, these wonderful voyages to this beautiful part of the world are amongst the most perennially popular.

Iceland & the Northern Isles

The opportunity to circumnavigate the pristine, rugged coastline of the 'Land of Fire and Ice', one of Europe's most endlessly fascinating outposts, is featured on several itineraries, which in addition to magical, mystical volcanic Iceland and its colourful capital Reykjavik, always include calls at some of the UK's remoter outposts.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in so far as concerns the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the fair Trading Act 1973, the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or free delivery must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisement) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisements offering goods or services of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be treated as 'Trade Advertisements', and as such, must include their names in advertising. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Classifications) Order 1972, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by contract, formal, oral or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "Wholesaler", "Retailer", "agent", "wholesaler", "TTV" etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;

(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser;

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser;

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reason the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full column. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do occasionally occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one inserted insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for publication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 10% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered, the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Acceptable facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to vary a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or allowances that had been allowed will be retracted.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or allowances that had been allowed will be retracted. Legal action to recover the interest will be taken in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Advertisers who do not instruct us to appoint an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of any advertisement placed by the advertising agent till to us. For the avoidance of doubt, the agents shall be liable for the advertisement and the publisher, even with the agent being responsible for recovering the payment of this liability.

15. All queries must be handled, preferably in writing to the customer department of the publisher within 7 days of the previous date.

16. All digital services are undertaken in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional service disruption beyond the publishers' control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability for the production and distribution of web services is disrupted or suspended by any event beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide visitors copies of published advertisements in electronic form only subject to their consent. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements purchased wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of only advertising material. Original instruments, proofs, cash, cash cheques or payment of any kind must not be enclosed. A Box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No. centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Hotels & Travel Categories

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, please number alone are not permitted.

MORE HOME WOE FOR O'S

Football

Leyton Orient 0 Yeovil Town 1
Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

ORIENT'S woeful early-season home form continued on Saturday after Yeovil became the third side in four starts to leave east London with maximum points, courtesy of a late second-half clincher from Tom Eaves.

Boss Andy Hessenthaler named an unchanged side on the back of two successful away days at Morecambe and Carlisle.

Gavin Massey asked an early question of the Grovers' keeper Artur Krysiak with an 18-yard snapshot, but it was the struggling south Somerset outfit who settled the better with Kevin Dawson and Matt Dolan controlling midfield.

The O's, as ever, looked shaky at the back and having survived several Otis Khan crosses, the visitors were close to drawing first blood when full-back Nathan Smith fashioned a 16th minute chance from the acutest of angles, from which Alex Cisak had to make a smart near-post catch.

Orient finally hit back on 19 minutes with Liam Kelly – no stranger to the opposing penalty box – scuffing his effort from Harry Cornick's square ball, 16 yards out.

Having forced a succession of corners, Yeovil should have taken a 24th minute lead.

But Eaves, under pressure from Cisak, headed Khan's free-kick over a gaping goal.

The O's continued to stutter, with Cornick crashing wide from a McCallum lay-off, before Yvan Erichot – in unfamiliar territory – failed to test an underworked Krysiak with a close-range header.

An already stretched Orient squad then suffered a blow seconds before the interval when Nicky Hunt sustained a nasty looking knee injury and was replaced by rookie Aron Pollok at the turnaround.

Hessenthaler revealed later: "Nicky will be having a scan on the injury next week to determine the full extent, it looks like a cruciate ligament injury."

The east Londoners were woefully slow out the blocks after the restart – with Yeovil dominating – but never really testing Cisak.

On 62 minutes the biggest cheer so far went up when 'forgotten' man Jay Simpson was introduced into the fray, alongside influential midfielder Nigel Atangana.

It was Atangana though who made an instant impression by nicking the ball off Khan's big toe, as the schemer was about to fire Town ahead.

Seconds after Simpson had tested Krysiak with a stinging drive, Yeovil took a deserved 76th minute lead when the O's defence were caught napping after Ryan Hedges reacted quickest to Khan's short corner.

The winger's cross enabled Eaves to net with a looping close range header that deceived a flat-footed Cisak, after crossing the line via the crossbar.

Disappointingly, the O's were slow to reply, with Simpson finally seeing his 92nd minute effort cleared off the line, to leave a frustrated Hessenthaler explaining away this latest home reverse.

He said: "We're all disappointed and the players will want to put things right next week (on Saturday at Notts County, kick-off 3pm).

"The supporters are frustrated, and they have a right to be. I can only apologise.

"I take full responsibility. But, as a group, the players are hurting as much as the fans. But again we conceded after switching off from a set-piece.

"I don't know why we are struggling at home – perhaps there is a little nervousness amongst the players. We just weren't at it today."

Hessenthaler added: "I have just spoken to the president and he is as disappointed as anybody. It was just one of those days – a bad day at the office. But hats off to Yeovil – they were the better team."

Opposing manager Darren Way was entitled to exclaim: "The performance was amazing against a team with a big budget."

"I thought we dominated the game. No one at this club gives up – that's what I saw today."

After Saturday's Notts County trip, the O's entertain in-form Plymouth Argyle next Tuesday (kick-off 7.45pm).

Leyton Orient: Alex Cisak, Nicky Hunt (Aron Pollok), Yvan Erichot, Tom Parkes, Callum Kennedy, Harry Cornick, Robbie Weir (captain) (Nigel Atangana 62), Liam Kelly, Gavin Massey, Paul McCallum, Jordan Bowery (Jay Simpson 62).

Yeovil Town: Artur Krysiak, Liam Shepherd, Alex Lacey, Darren Ward (captain), Nathan Smith, Otis Khan (Bevis Mugabi 89), Kevin Dawson, Matt Butcher, Matt Dolan, Ryan Hedges, Tom Eaves.

Referee: Darren Deadman

Assistants: Andrew Aylott and Stephen Finch.

Attendance: 4,557

Non-league round-up

Billericay make FA Cup progress

By Brian Jeeves

BILLERICAY Town are still on the Wembley trail after edging out Bognor Regis Town by two goals to one in an entertaining FA Cup second qualifying round tie at New Lodge.

Second half goals from Alex Stephenson and Edvardas Gaurilovas were enough to see Town through after James Crane had stunned the home fans among the 336 with a first half opener.

Canvey Island remain in the hat, but they will have to overcome Slough Town in a replay after the sides drew 2-2 at Park Lane. Martin Tuohy and Tony Stokes hit the Gulls goals, while Ashley Nathaniel-George and Eoin Casey replied for the visitors. But it was a desperate afternoon for the region's sides in the cup. Chelmsford City went down 3-2 to Dartford at the Melbourne Stadium. Shamir Mullings hit both Clares goals, but it proved to be a bridge too far after a Ross Fitzsimons own goal and a brace from Elliot Bradbrook gave the Kent club a 3-0 lead before the break.

East Thurrock United also went down 3-2, Whitehawk progressing at Rookery Hill despite goals from James Walker and Harry Honesty for the hosts. Concord Rangers were stunned 3-1 by AFC Rushden & Diamonds at the Aspect Arena. Steve Cawley with the Beach Boys consolation from the penalty spot. Meanwhile, Waltham Forest went down 3-1 at Folkestone Invicta, and it was the same outcome at Beaconsfield SYCOB where Witham Town saw their cup run come to an end.

Dagenham & Redbridge continued their steady start to life in the National League. Oliver Hawkins hit his ninth goal of the season, while Luke Howell added another as the Daggers saw off North Ferriby United at Victoria Road 2-0. An early goal from Chester FC's Sam Hughes condemned Braintree Town to their sixth defeat of the season and saw them slip back into the relegation zone.

In Ryman League Division One North, Joshua Banton and Leon Gordon found the net as Great Wakering Rovers came from behind to beat Brentwood Town 2-1 at the Brentwood Arena. Charlie Georgiou gave the home side a first half lead. Bowers & Pitsea were also 2-1 winners, Brad Warner (penalty) and Fahad Nyanja helping them over the line against Haringey Borough. Ralston Gabriel hit a consolation for the Londoners.

Adam Mills bagged a hat-trick, while Sam Newson and Tyler Brampton also got in on the act as Maldon & Tiptree won 5-1 against Romford. And there was a 4-1 win for Tilbury over Soham Town Rangers at Chad Fields. Neil Richmond, Tony Martin (penalty), Eli Benoit and Emiel Aiken with goals for the Dockers.

Jandir Da Cruz fired AFC Hornchurch into an early lead at Phoenix Sports. But the Urchins had to be content with a share of the spoils after Russell Bedford's leveller for the hosts. Taylor Tombides' goal wasn't enough to save Aveling from a 2-1 defeat at the hands of Cheshunt at Mill Field, and there was a 1-0 home defeat for Heybridge Swifts against Norwich United.

In the Essex Senior League, FC Romania picked up an impressive 4-2 win at Enfield 1893 and Sporting Bengal United were also among the goals, seeing off West Essex by three goals to one.

Clapton's 1-0 victory over Southend Manor was their third triumph in as many seasons at Southchurch Park.

Meanwhile, there were 2-1 wins for Takeley over Redbridge, and Sawbridgeworth Town, over Tower Hamlets.

Ilford and Barking played out a tense goalless draw in the east London derby at the Cricklefield Stadium, while games between Hullbridge Sports and Wadham Lodge, and Basildon United and Stansted both finished 1-1.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Rayleigh Town win their Premier Division clash at Buckhurst Hill by the odd goal in five, while Harold Hill won 4-2 at Harold Wood Athletic.

In Division One, Marcus Bowers hit a hat-trick, while Daniel Dafter and Jamie Merritt were also on target as Basildon Town hammered Newham United 5-1.

Great Baddow were 5-0 winners over London APSA and there was a thrilling 3-3 draw between Runwell Hospital and Old Southendian.

Herongate Athletic were 3-1 winners over Benfleet in Division Two, while Toby saw off Rochford Town by four goals to one.

Two new additions to Orient's squad

LEYTON Orient have added Slovenian under-21 midfielder, Zan Benedicic, to their squad, on a deal running until January 2017, subject to international clearance.

The 20-year-old completed a free transfer to Brisbane Road, having left Italian Serie B side Ascoli Picchio, and links up with the east Londoners on an initial short term deal.

Former Holland under-21 international Jens Janse, has also signed for the O's subject to international clearance.

Janse links up with the east Londoners on a free transfer, with his deal due to run up until the end of the current campaign.

The 30-year-old spent last season with Serie B side Ternana Calcio.

No idea how long Harry will be out

SPURS manager Mauricio Pochettino says it is impossible to say how long striker Harry Kane will be out of action following his ligament/ankle injury.

However, he says the forward can come back stronger than before and build both his physical and mental strength while on the sidelines.

Speaking at the Spurs training ground in Enfield on Tuesday, Pochettino said there were different rumours being bandied about as to the length of Kane's absence.

He said: "We cannot guess whether it is one or four, or eight or ten weeks. It is impossible to assess today."

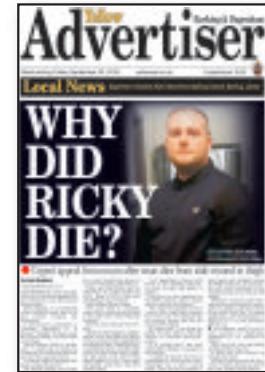

He added: "We can be positive and try to help him become stronger than before. It's a good opportunity not only to build his body but his fitness and his mentality."

Kane was in "a good mood" when the pair had been chatting in a restaurant together, said Pochettino.
